Beloved Brethren,

May the Lord be magnified, for His awesome presence in our midst. The sweet glow of the Holy Spirit was upon His Church on Sunday as we surrendered our hearts, minds and bodies to Him in true worship. God undoubtedly came down to worship with us. And we bless His name for the touching Word He gave us emotionally conveyed in a melody of love through Prophet Robert Goodman. And for the very first time, we heard Him sing for us His children. It was indeed a warm and unforgettable family gathering. May His indispensable presence abound with us forever.

We were again mightily blessed to hear God's Word ministered to us from the mouth of His anointed servant, Prophet Leonard Vando, in Westminster. The message was a dynamic one and of great utility for those who are going through trials in their faith walk with God. Please visit the church website to listen to this inspiring sermon.

There are several announcements we need to convey even as the year comes to a close. First of all, there will be a New Year's Eve celebration and victory service scheduled for Thursday, December 31st 2009 from 6:00p.m until midnight. We request and plead that you bring food to share with the brethren and spice up the evening. Come in your dancing shoes, for it will be a time of great rejoicing and of course, great refreshments, in celebration of God's goodness to us during the year 2009. We will begin with a common meal when we meet at 6:00p.m., and then there will be an intermission to eat again later in the evening. Come prepared to give God a dose of dynamic praise, eccentric dancing and heartfelt thanksgiving.

In conjunction with New Year's Eve celebration, we would like to remind everyone about the gift exchange exercise. The drawing of names was conducted in the Westminster assembly on Sunday and the actual exchange of gifts will take place on Sunday, January 3rd 2010. In Riverdale, the gift exchange will take place this coming Sunday. May the Holy Spirit guide you in your selection.

Further, we would like to encourage you to come join the prayer team every Saturday morning at 9am to pray for Pastor Robinson at the Fondong's. In fact, this coming Saturday, the brethren in Riverdale will meet at the Ekor-Tah's (Pastor James' and Sis Julienne's home) at 12pm to lift up Pastor Robinson in prayer.

Another general reminder goes out to the leaders about the upcoming leaders' meeting of Wednesday, December 16th, 2009. The presence of every leader is highly solicited. Please duly notify Pastor Robinson if for any reason you cannot be present.

We invite everyone to visit Jesus Books as we shop for the holidays. The bookstore is located at 51 East Main St., Westminster, MD 21157. The store is owned and operated by Christian Missionary Fellowship International, Inc., therefore buying from Jesus books is investing in your own business.

May your week be flooded with His goodness, His presence, and the essence of His Spirit.
