Beloved Brethren,

We give God praise for His glory and presence which we experienced Sunday in Westminster as we came together, testified, praised, worshiped, and received God's word and prophetic utterances. Brother Rob Goodman preached about our need to understand God's vision for our lives. We begin to understand God's will for our lives through the written word of God coming alive to us as the Rhema. Often God also speaks through prophecy. Scripture is filled with countless examples of the gift of prophecy in action by those in the office of a prophet and by ordinary believers who had that spiritual gift. He went on to say that God is balanced in His encounters with us in that He blesses us with prosperity while also allowing tests to come our way. These prove we aren't only in Christianity for the goodies but that instead we will obey His commandments regardless of circumstances. It is an amazing thing for us to stop and ask ourselves if we are willing to suffer for Jesus Christ's sake as the first believers were. These matters of deep contemplation reveal much and are to be expected and truly encountered only by the power of God in our lives and not begrudgingly in our flesh. One place where we all fit into God's grander scheme is through prayer. During the meeting we received a word of prophecy in which God spoke that CMFI was a precious pearl to Him. Surely there is much work for us to do for the kingdom, however it will begin by being laid out in prayer.

This week there are several announcements to be made. Pastor Robinson has safely made his trip to Brazil. He arrived on Sunday morning to the first place he was to minister. His trip will involve ministry at various locations which you can follow at the website's homepage. Please remember to pray for him that God will use him, protect him, and continuously fill him. If you would like to listen to him while he is ministering you may do so by visiting the church website. Pastor Robinson sent his greeting and gratitude to the church. He said that we should be encouraged that God is doing wonders in Brazil. Prayer topics are also attached to this email, and the weekly prayer meetings for the pastors continue as usual on Saturdays.

Thirdly, we encourage the purchasing of books from Jesus Books. There is a wide variety of quality books of high caliber at the store. Books are sold after church in Westminster in the lobby. If you're interested in any particular book please call 410-751-6934 to inquire, or email info@jesusbooks-cmfi.com.

Finally, may your week be blessed by God, and may you walk and abide with Him in communion and prayer.
